AMENDMENT

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

(1) The specific purpose for which this Corporation is organized and operated is exclusively for charitable, religious, or educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Such purposes shall include the following:

(a) The primary mission of the YOUNG ALUMNI MOVEMENT, INC. is to engage young alumni of the Florida state university system through activities and service in order to provide scholarships for deserving undergraduate students. As of the fourth quarter of 2010, the unemployment rate in the state of Florida is 11.8%, which is higher than the national average of 10% (See: Bureau of Labor Statistics:

<http://www.bls.gov/news.release/laus.nr0.htm>). Job losses have disproportionately impacted minorities and those of lower socioeconomic status – including recent college graduates – in the form of unemployment, underemployment, and higher tuition costs. Understanding the need, the Young Alumni Movement, Incorporated aspires to become a gateway for college graduates to transition into gainful employment and to assist undergraduates in bridging the gap in higher tuition costs via its social networking platform and scholarship opportunities.

(b) The organization is designed to assist college graduates in integrating into alumni status by providing a platform for employment, networking, and social opportunities.

(c) The organization will also focus on providing input and assistance to colleges on issues regarding young alumni, particularly underrepresented minority groups, in order to promote the University's aims, purposes, programs, and activities.

(d) The organization will provide scholarships to matriculating undergraduate students based on their scholastic achievement, organizational leadership, being a member of an underrepresented minority group, and/or disadvantaged background.

(2) As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(a) To receive and accept gifts of money and property and to hold the same for any of the purposes of the Corporation and its work.

(b) To raise and assist in raising funds for the purposes herein set forth, including the issuance of bonds or other instruments of credits.

(c) To acquire, own, lease, mortgage and dispose of property both real and personal.

(d) To accept property and donations in trust for educational or charitable purposes.

(3) The property of the Corporation is irrevocable dedicated to educational and charitable purposes, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation/organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation/organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of Section 501 (c)(3) purposes.

(a) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation/organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation/organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

(4) The Corporation shall not:

(a) operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit;

(b) accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status; or

(c) except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

Directors shall be elected as set forth in the Corporation's Bylaws.

(1) This Corporation may be empowered to indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director in the manner set out and provided for in the bylaws of this Corporation.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation/organization shall not carry on any other activities nor permitted to be carried on:

(a) by a corporation/organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501C3 of the I.R.S. Code (or corresponding section of the any future Federal tax code) or

(b) by a corporation/organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the I.R.S. Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).

(3) Upon dissolution of this corporation/organization assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.
