Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, transfer or distribute all assets to one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.

ARTICLE IX LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the fullest extent not prohibited by the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act, as it exists on the date hereof or is hereafter amended, a director and/or officer of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation or its members for any monetary damages for conduct as a director and/or officer. Any amendment to or repeal of the Article IX or amendment to the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director and/or officer of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. This provision, however, shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director or officer for:

(1) Any breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members;

(2) Acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

(3) Any unlawful distribution;

(4) Any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; or

(5) Any act or omission in violation of Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent not prohibited by the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act, as it exists on the date hereof or is hereafter amended, the Corporation:

(1) Shall indemnify any person who is made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or otherwise (including an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of Corporation), by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director of the Corporation; and

(2) This Article X shall not be deemed exclusive of any other provisions or insurance for the indemnification of directors, officers, employees, or agents that may be included in any statute, bylaw, agreement, resolution of members or directors or otherwise, both as to action in any official capacity and action in any other capacity while holding office, or while an employee or agent of the Corporation.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
