That the Board of Directors, its chairman, and all officers heretofore elected or appointed and holding office under and by the corporation formed and approved by the Circuit Judge on March 7, 1947, shall continue to hold their respective offices and to discharge their respective duties thereunder until the officers provided for in and by this instrument are elected or appointed and qualified under the provisions hereof and all existing contracts, agreements, or obligations shall continue in effect and unimpaired until repealed, amend or modified by the corporation as provided by law.

The corporation shall then be entitled to and be possessed of all the privileges, franchises, and powers as if originally incorporated under this act, Chapter 617, the Florida Not for Profit Act, and all the properties, rights, and privileges belonging to the corporation prior to reincorporation, which were acquired by gift, grant, conveyance, assignment, or otherwise are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed, and assured to the corporation with like effect and to all intents and purposes as if they had been originally acquired pursuant to incorporation under Chapter 617, the Florida Not for Profit Act. However, any corporation reincorporating under this Act shall be subject to all the contracts, duties, and obligations resting upon the corporation prior to reincorporation or to which the corporation shall then be in any way liable.

ARTICLE XII DISTRIBUTIONS OF NET EARNINGS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE XIII DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code including, but not limited to, the distribution to The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist Boston, Massachusetts or to one or more of its Branch Churches and Societies, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principle office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such exempt purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such exempt purposes.

The undersign officer hereby certifies that the acceptance of Chapters 617, the Florida Not for Profit Act, and the issuance of the Certificate of Reincorporation were both duly authorized at a duly called meeting of the members of First Church of Christ, Scientist of Gainesville, Florida, now to be known as Christian Science Society of Gainesville, Florida, Inc.
