ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF

International Society for Eastern and Western Medicine, Inc.
(a Not For Profit corporation)

The undersigned, acting as Incorporator of International Society for Eastern and Western Medicine, Inc., a corporation organized under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I

NAME, PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND MAILING ADDRESS

The name of the corporation shall be International Society for Eastern and Western Medicine, Inc. (hereinafter, the "Corporation"). The principal office, street address, and mailing address of the Corporation is 3841 N.W. 53rd Street, Boca Raton, Florida 33496.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized to operate exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Within the constraints of the foregoing sentence, the Corporation's purpose shall be to provide:

- (i) Funding for scientists to study the interactions of Eastern and Western medicine, the scientific basis of traditional Eastern medicine, the scientific basis of herbal medicine, the scientific basis of acupuncture and meditation therapy, and the effects of traditional Eastern medicine on chronic diseases which have shown little improvement with Western medicine and generate high health care costs;

- (ii) Funding for training of medical students and physicians on traditional Eastern medicine and its interaction with Western medicine;
- (iii) Access to traditional Eastern medicine for patients who cannot afford it; and
- (iv) Forums for physicians, scientists, students and patients of Eastern and Western medicine to interact, including but not limited to, annual meetings, medical journals, and educational seminars.

ARTICLE III

POWERS

The Corporation shall have the power to acquire, own, maintain and use its assets for the purposes for which it is organized, to raise funds by any legal means for the encouragement of its purposes; to exercise all powers necessary or convenient to the furtherance of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized, and shall have such other powers as are granted to corporations not for profit under Florida Statutes and case law.

ARTICLE IV

LIMITATIONS

A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, directors, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

C. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by (a) an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and its regulations, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or (b) an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

D. In the event that the Corporation is deemed to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, then:

1. The Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner so that it will not become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

2. The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

3. The Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

4. The Corporation will not make any investments in a manner that would subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

5. The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws.

ARTICLE V

DISTRIBUTIONS OF SURPLUS ON LIQUIDATION

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or other discontinuance of the charitable activities and operations of the Corporation, no surplus remaining after payment of the just debts and liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed to or amongst any members or directors of the Corporation, but after making provision for the payment of all of the just debts and liabilities of the Corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed, as selected by the Board of Directors, to such other organization or organizations as are exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be distributed by order of a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, to such organization or organizations, as such court shall determine, that are organized and operated exclusively for exempt purposes.

ARTICLE VI

MEMBERSHIP

The Corporation shall not have any voting members.
