ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

FOR

SUNSHINE CENTER FOR PUBLIC SERVICE REPORTING, INC.

The undersigned subscriber, desiring to form a not-for-profit corporation under the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, does hereby accept all of the rights, privileges, benefits and obligations conferred and imposed by said law and does hereby make, subscribe, acknowledge and file these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the Corporation is SUNSHINE CENTER FOR PUBLIC SERVICE REPORTING, INC.

ARTICLE II

CORPORATE PURPOSE

(a) The general object and general purpose of the Corporation is to raise, receive and maintain a fund, or funds, of real property or personal property, or both, and to distribute, administer and utilize the fund or funds, including any income generated therefrom, exclusively for those purposes described in Sections 501(c)(3), 170(c)(2) and 2055(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws (the "Code"), including religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, educational or prevention of cruelty to children or animals ("general charitable purposes").

(b) In addition to the general charitable purposes described in the foregoing paragraph (a), the specific charitable purposes ("specific charitable purposes") are to

(i) inform and educate the public, chiefly residents of Florida, on issues of broad public concern, including , but not limited to, the political process and environmental and social issues, in order that they might be better citizens and consumers. It will achieve these objectives by creating and disseminating impartial enterprise and watchdog journalism on a free public website and through social media.; and

(ii) to further its mission, the center will also create an educational component to train and professionalize bloggers and citizen journalists, through seminars and educational outreach, to enable them to better serve their communities. The center will aggressively seek partnerships with other media – both non-profit and for-profit – to serve as outlets for its reporting and to help generate both ideas and resources to further its reporting and education efforts.

The general charitable purposes and specific charitable purposes are collectively referred to as "Charitable Purposes."

(c) In carrying out the charitable purposes, the Corporation has all of the powers and authorities granted by law pertaining to corporations not for profit, including the power and authority to accept gifts, devises and other contributions for charitable purposes, to buy and sell real and personal property, or an undivided interest therein, to lease property, to hold, administer, invest and reinvest the funds and properties received and to expend, contribute and otherwise dispose of funds or properties for charitable purposes either directly or by contribution to other organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes; provided, however, that such powers and authorities shall be exercised only in furtherance of charitable purposes as permitted under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and under Sections 501(c)(3) and 170 (c)(2) of the Code and regulations pertaining thereto.

ARTICLE III

CORPORATE POWERS

In addition to all other corporate powers provided by law and in furtherance of the objectives described above but not in limitation thereof, the Corporation shall have the power to:

(a) Have succession by its corporate name for the period set forth in its Articles of Incorporation.

(b) Sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person.

(c) Adopt and use a common corporate seal and alter the same; provided, however, that such seal shall always contain the words "Not for Profit Corporation."

(d) Elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require and allow them reasonable compensation.

(e) Adopt, change, amend and repeal Bylaws not inconsistent with law or its Articles of Incorporation for the administration of the affairs of the Corporation and the exercise of its corporate powers.

(f) Increase, by a vote of its Directors cast as the Bylaws may direct, the number of its Directors so that the number shall not be less than five (5).

(g) Make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the Corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of its property, franchises or income.

(h) Conduct its affairs, carry on its operations and have offices and exercise the powers granted by Florida law in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States or any foreign country.

(i) Purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any option or interest therein wherever situated.

(j) Acquire, enjoy, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interests thereunder or therein.

(k) Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(l) Purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with shares and other interests in or obligations of other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of other government, state, territory, governmental district, municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(m) Lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(n) Make donations for the public welfare or for religious, charitable, scientific, educational or other similar purposes.

(o) Have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized.

(p) Merge, consolidate or engage in any other corporate reorganization or corporate division with other not for profit corporations, domestic or foreign, provided that the surviving corporation(s) is (are) a corporation(s) not for profit.
