Article 3: Purpose

The Association is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes, including for such purposes of making and distributing to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. To that end, the Association is empowered to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein without limitation as to the amount or value; to dispose of any such property and deal with the principal or the income in such manner as, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, will best promote the purposes of the Association, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received. These Articles of Association, the By-Laws, or any applicable laws, to do any other act or thing incidental to or connect with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under Not-for-Profit Law.

The purpose of the Association is to promote interest amongst first generation, at risk, disadvantaged students; to complete high school, and pursue post secondary and graduate education. The R.O.C.K Association networks to provide tutoring, mentoring, an ambassador and summer program, lecture series, parent information sessions, scholarship opportunities, financial aid, and admissions workshops. In addition to educational programs the association provides temporary housing as well as collects and distributes food, clothing, and essential supplies for the disadvantaged. As a means to further public welfare; foster and promote communication, research and development in its areas; in order to further community relations. The organization is also involved in the dissemination of technical and educational information relating to the association; and the printing and publishing of documents, books, magazines, newspapers and pamphlets necessary or incidental to any of the above purposes.

No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of any member or officer of the organization, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Association affecting one or more of its purposes. No member or officer of the Association, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the association. No substantial part of the activities of the association shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation.
