- 2) There are certain required provisions that must be included in your organizational document. Organizations seeking exemption under section 501(c)(3) must meet the organizational test. This test ensures that the purposes and assets of your organization are dedicated to 501(c)(3) purposes. In order to meet the organizational test for exemption under section 501(c)(3), your organizational document, Articles of Incorporation, must be amended to include the following provisions:
- a. Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
 - b. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other purposes not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
 - c. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

#4. The board members that we have are the officers that are listed in our corporate documents. Scott Snoddy President. Darryl Lange Vice President and Alvin Schiff Secretary and Treasure.

#5. We do not have any By-Laws.

- a. There are no specific qualifications to become a board member. We will ask at the beginning of the year if any parent of the team would like to participate as a board member, or if they would like to make changes to the current board.
- b. All spending is voted on by the parents and the board members have to okay any expenditure, and it must be agreed upon between parents and board members.
- c. There was no election for the first Board Members, so we kept the officers of the corporation as the board members for one year. Every year we will hold a meeting with all parents to see if they want to make any changes to the board, or if any body would like to volunteer for one of the positions.
- d. The duties of the Board Members are to over see the daily operations of the team, and make sure that anything that is done is with good intent for the team..
- e. The officers of the organization were appointed by the President of the corporation, and we have a President, Vice President and Secretary Treasure.
- f. To oversee the day to day operation of the Team, and to listen to suggestions from the parents, and also to make sure that the team obeys the leagues rules.
- g. The Board of Directors meet once per month, or if needed on any special reason.
- h. The only people that are authorized to transact business on behalf of the team, are the President and Secretary Treasure. The limit on the limitations are that we can authorize $250.00 with out a Board meeting, and if any more is needed it must be approved by all the Board Members and Parents. Any check written over $250.00 requires two signatures,
