The principal address of the corporation and the registered office address are the same.

Article III. Purpose

The purposes for which this corporation is formed are exclusively charitable to wit:

- (a) To accept, hold, invest, reinvest, and administer any gifts, bequests, devises, benefits of trusts (but not to act as trustee of any trust), and property of any sort, without limitation as to amount or value, and to use, disburse, or donate the income or principal thereof for exclusively charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code").
- (b) Alone or in cooperation with other persons or organizations, to do any and all lawful acts and things which may be necessary, useful, suitable or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, or attainment of any or all of the purposes or powers of the corporation.

- (c) Notwithstanding any other provisions in these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from section 501 (c)(3) of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as they now exist or they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Code and the regulation promulgated thereunder, as they now exist or they may hereafter be amended.
- (d) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
- (e) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943 (c) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
- (f) The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
- (g) The corporation shall not engage in act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941 (d) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
- (h) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945 (d) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Article IV. Income and Distributions

No part of the income of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

Article V. Initial Board of Directors
