Amended Article III of Articles of Incorporation:

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to establish structured, consistent Children's Ministry programming (education) for the Dominican Republic Churches (and other Latin American churches as opportunities arise) leading children to learn to serve within the local church and grow future leaders. To accomplish we will establish a "Resource Center" in the Dominican Republic to distribute "Children's Ministry Programming" resources and supplies to Dominican churches free of charge and provide training to Dominican youth leaders within the Dominican churches.

The corporation will strengthen church leaders in the training of their youth from which future leaders will evolve. In the words of a veteran Dominican Christian Church leader, "If we don't train our youth to be leaders, our churches will die". Dominican Christian Churches are shrinking and the reversal of this trend is rooted in training the next generation.

Corporation activities will include but not be limited to:

1. Provide curriculum in Spanish (translating and adapting to cultural needs and limitations of the local churches)
2. Establish a centralized "Resource Center" to provide resources and supplies
3. Equip youth leaders
4. Organize Cross Cultural Mission's activities (trips) for partnering churches in the United States to witness, participate and share in equipping the next generation
