The Corporation may indemnify, to the full extent permitted by the State of Florida not for profit corporation laws, every person who is or was a party or is or was threatened to be made a party to any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he or she is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent or trustee or another corporation or partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, including service on a committee formed for any purpose (and case, his or her heirs, executors and administrators), against all expense, liability and loss (including counsel fee, judgments, fines, excise taxes, penalties, and amount paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with such action, suit, or proceedings, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as in effect on the date hereof and as hereafter amended. Such indemnification may include advances to the provision of an applicable statute.

Article VII – Bylaws

Bylaws for the Corporation shall be made and adopted by the Board of Directors, and may be altered, amended, or rescinded by the Board of Directors in the manner prescribed in the Bylaws.

Article VIII – Amendments

The Corporation reserves the right to amend or appeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment to them, and all rights and privileges conferred upon the Directors, Trustees, and Officers are subject to this reservation. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, as amended from time to time, unless more specifically provisions for amendments are adopted by the Corporation pursuant to law.

Article IX – Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the repayment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of these assets of the Corporation exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific, and literary purpose to such “qualified” organization or organizations as the Board of Directors shall determine. An organization shall be deemed to be a “qualified” organization for purposes of this Article IX (Nine) only if at the time of the distribution of such assets it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any of such assets not so distributed shall be distributed by the commons pleas of the County in which the principle office of the Corporation is then located exclusively for the aforesaid purposes of the Corporation, or to such qualified organization or organizations as said court shall determine.
