ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

1. To provide a means for professional interaction and continuing education, problem solving, and discussion of professional issues among local groups of members of ACRP
2. To increase the opportunity for member participation in ACRP activities;
3. To provide a readily accessible mechanism for regional program development;
4. To provide a network to rapidly gain member feedback on issues of concern to ACRP committees and the Association Board of Trustees
5. To provide a locally effective membership recruitment mechanism;
6. To provide improved access to ACRP resources, including certification; etc., etc.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed:

Annual elections shall occur during the fourth quarter of each year. No less than sixty (60) days prior to the annual election, the Chapter Nominations Committee or executive Board shall present via mail, or at a regularly scheduled meeting of the active membership, 1-2 candidates for each elective office. In addition, other nominations from any active member may be made by fax, e-mail or mail to the nominations committee, or from the floor at any regularly scheduled meeting of the active membership, not less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual election. Elections will take place by secret ballot at a regularly scheduled meeting of the active membership. Active members who cannot be in attendance may leave a written proxy vote with the President. Any proxy shall be executed in writing by the member or his/her duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after thirty (30) days from the date of its execution. Ballots will be tallied by at least two members of the Nominations Committee and certified accurate by the President. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared the winner. The voting results shall be forwarded to the ACRP Headquarters within thirty (30) days of the tally.
