- (c) Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE III DURATION

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes and including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Furthermore, Christian Jewels Corporation is a charitable organization with a specific goal to increase educational opportunities for students, their families plus the surrounding community by providing educational, social and cultural enrichment programs.

ARTICLE V INITIAL OFFICERS

The corporation shall have no members. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Officers, as defined in the corporation's bylaws. No Officer shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation.
