Article III Purpose: The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purpose within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue code. Our purpose is to serve the community by providing assistance to low income families, improving their quality of life and creating better conditions for families and their children by providing mentors, life skills such as: responsibility, budgeting, communication, and goal setting which will come from professional employees and business owners. We also would like to help teen parents overcome there challenges of raising children by offering parenting classes, and tutoring which will come from Teacher and College students in the community. This will help families and individuals build positive parenting interactions and develop good parenting practices. We will provide information and referrals to available community resource to help address the these needs.

ARTICLE VIII- Dissolution Clause:

Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501 C (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
