The corporation may not have capital stock or shareholders.

For purposes of these Articles of Incorporation, the "Appointment Committee" consists of the trustees of the Church, ex-officio, and any replacement person or group, regardless of name, charged by the members of the Church to exercise the powers granted to the Appointment Committee herein. If at any time the Church has affirmatively dissolved, then all powers granted by these Articles of Incorporation to the Appointment Committee will devolve to the Board of Directors (including the power to appoint its members) and the Appointment Committee will cease permanently to have such powers. An action of the Appointment Committee or the members of the Church is effective, under these Articles of Incorporation, if taken in accordance with the requirements (quorum, percentage of votes, etc.) prescribed for such action in or in accordance with the governing documents of the Church, whether prescribed specifically for action under these Articles or generally for action as a governance body of the Church.
