INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

A. Indemnity. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, employee, officer or agent of the Association, against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, unless (a) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that such person did not act in good faith, nor in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that such person had reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful, and

(b) such court further specifically determines that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, suit or proceedings by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

B. Expenses. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection therewith.

C. Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article XI.

D. Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

E. Insurance. The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving, at the request of the Association, as a director, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

F. Amendment. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the provisions of this Article XI may not be amended without the prior written consent of Seventy-five Percent (75%) voting interest of the members.

ARTICLE XII. RIGHTS OF DEVELOPER

Lincolnshire Dona Bay, LLC, a Florida limited liability company, which is the Developer of The Harbor Villas at Dona Bay, a Condominium, shall have full right and authority to manage the affairs and exclusive right to elect the directors of the Association (who need not be Unit Owners) until the following shall occur:

(a) One-third. When unit owners other than the Developer own fifteen percent (15%) or more of the units in any one condominium that will be operated ultimately by the Association, they shall be entitled to elect no less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors.

(b) Majority. Unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the Board of Directors at the earliest of:

(1) three (3) years after fifty percent (50%) of the units that ultimately will be operated by the Association have been conveyed to purchasers; or

(2) three (3) months after ninety percent (90%) of the units that ultimately will be operated by the Association have been conveyed to purchasers; or

(3) when all units that ultimately will be operated by the Association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business; or

(4) when some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business; or

(5) when the Developer files a petition seeking protection in Bankruptcy; or

(6) when a Receiver for the Developer is appointed by a Circuit Court and is not discharged within thirty (30) days after such appointment; or

(7) Seven (7) years after recordation of the Declaration of Condominium. The Developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Directors of the Association as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the units in the Condominium operated by the Association. Following the time the Developer relinquishes control of the Association, the Developer may exercise the right to vote any Developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the Association or selecting the majority members of the Board of Directors.

(c) Developer member. The Developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Directors as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the units that ultimately will be operated by the Association.

Within seventy-five (75) days after the unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of Directors, the Association shall call, and give not less than sixty (60) days notice of a meeting of the unit owners to elect the member or members of the Board of Directors. The meeting may be called and the notice given by any unit owner if the Association fails to do so.

(e) Relinquishment of control. At the time that unit owners other than the Developer elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, the Developer shall relinquish control of the Association and the unit owners shall accept control. Simultaneously, the Developer shall deliver to the Association all property of the unit owners and of the Association held or controlled by the Developer, including but not limited to those items specified in the Act.

(f) Compelling compliance. In any action brought to compel transfer of Association control and election of Directors by unit owners other than the Developer, the summary procedure provided for in F.S. 51.011 may be employed, and the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

(g) Early transfer. Nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to prevent the Developer from transferring control of the Association to unit owners other than the Developer before the occurrence of the events described in this Section. However, the Developer shall not transfer control of the Association under this subparagraph if doing so would prevent compliance with the 60 day notice of election provided by the Act.

ARTICLE XIII.

The first bylaws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided by the bylaws.
