ARTICLE III- PURPOSE

1) The Michael Alan Kreps Squamous Cell Carcinoma Research Foundation (MAKSCCRF) provides support for those diagnosed with Squamous cell carcinoma of the head and neck, and their care givers, from diagnosis through cure and beyond including access to information, medical treatment referrals, clinical trials, bio-chemical research in digestive enzyme replacement, and social/emotional support through an interactive website, newsletter, volunteer services, and respite.

The foundation may provide funding for biochemical research that is already underway, and will offer information assistance in obtaining treatment referrals, up-to-date information on treatment options and side effects, as well as providing connection to support services world-wide. Finally, the foundation will develop "A Hero's Path", a program with the intention of providing easier and discounted travel, lodging, vacations, and organizational support to patients and survivors of Squamous cell cancer of the head and neck, to accommodate their special feeding requirements.

2) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

3) The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
