We have received your document for MAKING OUR MARK, INC. and your check(s) totaling $87.50. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The Florida Statutes require an entity to designate a street address for its principal office address. A post office box is not acceptable for the principal office address. The entity may, however, designate a separate mailing address. The mailing address may be a post office box.

The document must contain written acceptance by the registered agent, (i.e. "I hereby am familiar with and accept the duties and responsibilities as Registered Agent.")

The registered agent must sign accepting the designation.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6973.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Making Our Mark, Inc.
"Empowering our youth for a better TODAY"

FILED
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
2010 MAY -7 PM 4:05

The undersigned, a citizen of the United States, desiring to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of Florida, does hereby certify:

Article I

The name of the Corporation shall be Making Our Mark, Inc.

The place in this state where the principal office of the Corporation is to be located is 4535 Saint Nazaire Road, Pensacola, FL 32505.

Article II

The mailing address for the Corporation is P.O. Box 17836, Pensacola, FL 32522-7836.

Article III

The Corporation shall have perpetual duration.

Article IV

The said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The purpose of the Corporation is to foster confidence, self esteem and self worth in the youth of the Pensacola Community through the integration of, but not limited to dance, poetry, acting, photography, drawing, painting, and musical production. While providing an avenue for self-expression, the Corporation will help to reveal and enhance the abilities and multiple talents of its faction.

In order to enhance the Arts, the Corporation will provide hands on trainings, informative workshops, and clinics with knowledgeable clinicians in every area of interest as well as for motivational, educational, and empowering purposes. The Corporation shall allow for the showcasing of talents through talent shows, annual productions, and publications. The youth will be inspired to be their best and will know that their best is not just good; it's great through the encouragement and opportunity that shall be provided via the Corporation. The Corporation will make opportunities that may seem unattainable seem closer to reality through the mentorship and sustenance afforded the youth from the moral and high-achieving mentors affiliated with it.

The Corporation shall work with the school district and members of the community to identify those youths that may more suitably benefit from its advantages. Those youths with potential and even those with misguided focus are prime candidates although no one shall be turned down.

The Corporation shall even go beyond the arts in an effort to introduce and even inspire the community's youth to a broader horizon by offering college readiness and college alternative seminars encouraging high school graduation and successful life practices. To occupy the idle time of the communities youth and help to produce upstanding citizens is an essential function of the Corporation. Aiding in times of crisis, lending in times of need, calming in times of chaos, and uplifting in times of despair are all facets of the Corporation. The Corporation will engage in activities that are within the scope of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Revenue Law. The Corporation shall accept, solicit and receive gifts, contributions, donations, bequests and transfers of any and every type of money or property, real, personal or mixed, to carry out the foregoing purposes. The Corporation shall have all those general powers specified within the Florida Nonprofit Corporation Code, including the power to do everything necessary, proper, advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes set forth herein, providing the same not be forbidden by the laws of the State of Florida.

Article V

The Corporation is not organized and shall not be operated for pecuniary gain or profit. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, board of directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Fourth hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
