SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Article I - Name

The name of the organization shall be New Hope Pentecostal Church, Inc. of Crawfordville, Florida

Article II - Principal Place of Business

The principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation shall be 243 Dr.
Martin Luther King Jr. Road, Crawfordville, Florida 32326

Article III - Purpose

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is as follows:

To establish and maintain an independent Pentecostal Church, to support and send forth missionaries that the Church deems worthy of support, and to provide a place of worship for the membership and invited visitors.

To establish, maintain and conduct schools, mission churches, mission stations, and to further other religious, educational and charitable work to that end, may adopt and establish by-laws and make all rules and regulations deemed necessary and expedient for the management of its affairs in accordance with law and not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation.

To acquire, buy, hold, own sell, exchange, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of goods, chattels, effects and merchandise.

To mortgage, lease, hypothecate, convey exchange, and dispose of lands and chattels, to acquire, by gift, annuity, bequest or otherwise, and to promote the diffusion of religious literature and education loyal to the New Testament faith.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

No Part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose of the organization. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be in the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under 170(C) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IV – Manner of Election

The manner in which the ^{Director}~~officers~~ are appointed or elected is by a two-thirds majority vote of members present and voting at organizational meetings assembled for a purpose of election as provided for in the By-Laws.

Persons who believe in repentance toward God, and faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord, and who are willing to confess Him publicly as Lord and follow Him in Baptism (immersion), and to observe the ordinances of Christ and to be governed by His laws and the Church Covenant, are qualified and eligible for membership in this Church corporation.

The manner of admission to membership shall be by letter of dismission from other churches of like faith and order by satisfactory statement of former membership in a Pentecostal Church and profession of faith as hereinbefore provided upon a favorable majority vote of the membership of said Church corporation present at any meeting of the Church, and in accordance with the By-Laws.
