Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities except those permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(7).

Article X. Amendment

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended as provided in this Article.

If there are members entitled to vote on a proposed amendment to these Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors must adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote on the proposed amendment, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected by the amendment must be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting in accordance with these Articles of Incorporation or the bylaws. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least a majority, or any larger or smaller percentage specified in these Articles of Incorporation or the bylaws, of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast; or

If there are no members or if members are not entitled to vote on proposed amendments to these Articles of Incorporation, an amendment may be adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the directors then in office.

Members entitled to vote on proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation may amend these Articles of Incorporation, without action by the directors, at a meeting for which notice of the changes to be made is given.

Any number of amendments may be submitted and voted upon at any one meeting.

Article XI. Indemnification

To the maximum extent permitted by Florida law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (not including any proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof.

To the maximum extent permitted by Florida law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person, who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the board of directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof.

To the maximum extent permitted by Florida law, expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if he or she is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the corporation pursuant to this section. Expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms or conditions that the board of directors deems appropriate.
