STREET ADDRESS: 12750 OAK STREET SAN ANTONIO, FL33576

ARTICLE III
Purpose

A) This Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation organized under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. It is not organized for the private gain of any person. The specific purpose of the Corporation is to administer and operate youth sports programs that teach boys and girls the importance of teamwork and good sportsmanship along with respect for one another and respect for our community.

B) Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distribution to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 C (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 C (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 C (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 C (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV
Manner of Election of Members

The corporation shall have voting members, who shall have all the rights and privileges of members of the Corporation. The bylaws may provide for nonvoting members of one or more classes, who shall be admitted in such manner and who shall have such rights and privileges as are set forth in the bylaws, but who shall not have the right to vote. Directors will be appointed by the Board to serve one-year terms.

The officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice President(s), Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall be elected by a favorable majority vote of the Board of Directors present at their annual meeting, and said officers shall hold their offices for the term of one year. Said Officers shall manage the affairs of the corporation, and they shall take office after the close of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which they are elected.

ARTICLE V
