Dear Sir or Madam:

Please find enclosed a new completed form for Clayton & McCulloh, P.A. to resign as registered agent from Windermere Trails Homeowners Association, Inc. (Document No. N10000005699).

Also enclosed is your rejection letter from the request mailed on June 12 of this year. The rejection was based on the client having listed our Firm by name only, without a person's name, thus not allowing for a proper resignation signor. As instructed, the new form is signed by Attorney Ken Clayton, a Partner and co-Owner of the law firm listed, Clayton & McCulloh, P.A.

Please accept this new application to resign along with payment of $87.50 remitted on June 12 (Check #58396) to remove us from this Association's annual report listing as soon as possible. We separated from the client in June, and for whatever reason neither they nor their new counsel have updated the information on the government website (despite our various requests they do so). As we are not their attorneys, we do not wish to be listed as the official recipient of any legal documents served to them.

Please contact me if there are any questions.

Sincerely,

David Batan
Coordinator of Client Services
