ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF CONGOLESE COMMUNITY OF ORLANDO, INC.

The undersigned, acting as incorporators of a corporation under the Not for Profit Corporation Act of the State of FLORIDA, adopt the following articles of incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation, hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation" is CONGOLESE COMMUNITY OF ORLANDO, INC.

ARTICLE II
PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal street address and mailing address is:
1908 crown Hill Blvd, Orlando, Florida 32828.
The period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE AND POWER OF THE ASSOCIATION

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:
To promote unity among Congolese living in Orlando
To promote Congolese cultural values and maintain good relation with other communities.
To help newly coming Congolese to adapt with the American society.
To help Philanthropic organizations in the world and other non profit associations in the Republic Democratic of Congo.
The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation may receive and administer funds for scientific, religious, educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to that end, the Corporation is empowered to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such manner as, in the judgment of the directors, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and no member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publication or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to one or more charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
