Article 14 – Effective Date

These Articles of Incorporation shall be effective immediately upon approval of the Secretary of State, State of Florida.

Article 15 – Amendment

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the Members, and approved at a Members meeting by a majority of the Members, unless all the Directors and all the Members sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

Article 16 – Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the Corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employees or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the board of directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer employee or agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation otherwise to indemnify of advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other matter. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee" and "agent" shall include their heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.

Article 17 – Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government for public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized exclusively for such purposes.

Article 18 – Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest exists when the personal and professional interests of a board member or committee member of the Corporation affect his or her ability to be objective. As board members or officers are likely to be affiliated with many organizations in their communities, both on a professional and personal basis, it is not unusual for actual or potential conflict of interests to arise. This policy defines how the Corporation interprets conflict of interest and what steps are expected to be taken to deal with such conflicts when they occur.

It is expected that no board member, officer or committee member shall use his or her position, or knowledge gained there from such a manner that a conflict arises between the interest of the Corporation and any of its affiliates and his or her personal or professional interests. Each board member or advisory committee member has the duty to place the interests of the Corporation foremost in any dealings on behalf of the organization, and has a continuing responsibility to comply with this policy.

In order to comply with this policy, it is expected that:

- If a board or committee member has any interest in a proposed transaction with the Corporation in the form of a significant personal or organizational financial interest in the transaction or holds a position as trustee, director, officer, or employee in such organization, he or she must fully disclose of such interest before any discussion or negotiation of such transaction.
- Any board or committee member who has a potential conflict of interest with respect to any matter coming before the board or committee shall not participate in any discussion of or vote in connection with the matter unless invited to respond to questions or provide factual information by the board or committee chair. Board members should disclose, in writing, any affiliation with another organization and refrain from voting.

- Any board or committee member who gains privileged information by virtue of his or her role as a board or committee member shall not use that privileged information for personal or professional gain.
- This policy shall be distributed annually to board or committee members. A signature in the designated space at the bottom of this conflict of interest policy will indicate the board or committee member's agreement to abide by this policy to the best of his or her ability.
