Article V. Organizational Purpose

To the extent permitted by Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3), this non profit Corporation is organized exclusively for educational and charitable purposes and will offer free special education advocacy services and training. The organization will help educate and train parents or caregivers of children with special needs about the rights available to their children under State and Federal law in an attempt to help them obtain a Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) under the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act. All references to "Code" are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended or to corresponding provisions of future Federal tax legislation.

Article VI. Organizational Limitations on Earnings and Activities

No part of the net earnings of Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, members or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of any of its purposes.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be for the purpose of providing political propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence Federal, State or local legislation, except as otherwise provided in Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(h). The Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign, publish or distribute political statements, on behalf of any candidate for political office. The corporation shall not carry on any activities except those permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3) or by corporation contributions which are deductible under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 170(c)(2).

While the Corporation anticipates that its status will be that of a charitable organization, if at any time the organization is deemed to be a private foundation within the meaning of Internal Revenue Service Code Section 509(a), then for the period in which the Corporation is so recognized, the Corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 4942, and the Corporation shall not engage in any act of self dealing as defined in Internal Revenue Service Code Section 4941(d), retain any excess business holdings as defined in Internal Revenue Service Code Section 4943(3), make any investments as to subject the Corporation to tax under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 4944 or make any taxable expenditures as defined in Internal Revenue Service Code Section 4945(d).

Article VII. Dissolution and Winding Up of Affairs

To the extent permitted under applicable law, upon the dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the assets remaining after remittance of the Corporation's debts and liabilities shall be distributed to a non-profit corporation, trust, community fund or foundation that has established tax exempt status under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Article VIII. Membership

The organization may offer membership after its establishment. Any person who has an interest in the Corporation's goals and objectives will be eligible for membership in the organization if they are capable of contributing to the achievement of the purposes and effective operation of the Corporation, and if they comply with the requirements established within its Bylaws. Members shall have no voting or other rights except as provided in the Corporation's Bylaws.
