ARTICE IV
LIMITATIONS

At all times the following shall operate as conditions restricting the operations and the activities of the corporation.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall authorized and empower to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any poetical campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

In addition to the foregoing, the following special provisions shall also apply:

1. The corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
2. The corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined by section 4941 (d) of the internal revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
3. The corporation will not retain any excess business holding as defined in section 4943 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
4. The corporation will not make any investment in such a manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
5. The corporation will not make any taxable expenditure as defined in section 4945 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Replace original Article V with below.

ARTICLE V

DISSOLUTION

Upon the time of dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed by the Board of Directors, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all debts, obligations, liabilities, costs and expenses of the corporation, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes states above or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
