TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Pursuant To the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, this Florida Not For Profit Corporation adopts the following restated and amendments to its Articles of Incorporation.

First the Article Amended:

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

Said Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.

Christian Sports Academy (CSA) is a faith based program dedicated to the instruction and sports training of young people for the purpose of improving and developing their capabilities. Our purpose is to enrich the lives of children by improving their skills while they learn to appreciate the value of helping and respecting others, eliminating prejudice and discrimination. This program will help in combating community deterioration, juvenile delinquency by providing a safe environment and alternative to the streets. Providing mentoring and intervention. Combating obesity by providing physical training and nutrition.

Through play, competition and education we encourage young people to learn patience, practice teamwork and develop social skills, CSA will run educational and work force development programs; teaching children sports skills, life skills and healthy life styles through an innovative approach. Creating character development, responsible conduct, societal achievement, and the value of personal success.

We are dedicated to change the hearts and lies of children with the good news of Jesus Christ, impacting lives through sports. What sets us apart from other programs are the moral, ethical and spiritual values.

Christian Sports Academy will abide by a racially nondiscriminatory policy towards applicants and students. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color or national or ethnic origin.

Second the Articles Adopted:

ARTICLE IX: EXEMPTION REQUIREMENTS

At all times shall the following operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the corporation:

1. The corporation shall not afford pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise to its members. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member of the corporation, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes. Such net earnings, if any, of this corporation shall be used to carry out the nonprofit corporate purposes set forth in Article III above.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE X: DURATION

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE XI: MEMBERSHIP/ BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The corporation shall have no members. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined in the corporation's bylaws. No Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation.

ARTICLE XII: PERSONAL LIABILITY

No officer or Director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the officer, or Directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

ARTICLE XIII: DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XIV: BYLAWS

The bylaws of this corporation are to be made, altered or rescinded by a majority of the Board of Directors present and voting at any properly called business meeting of the corporation, which shall be two weeks in advance of such business meeting, at which a quorum is present.

ARTICLE IV: AMENDMENTS

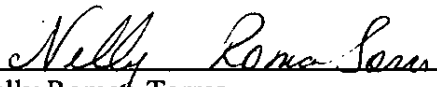

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed and new bylaws may be adopted by a majority vote of the Board of Directors at any regular meeting or special combined meeting of the Board of Directors. At least fourteen (14) days written advance notice of a meeting called for the purpose of altering, amending or repealing the Bylaws or Articles of Incorporation shall be given to each member of the Board of Directors.

The date of each amendments adoption: February 15, 2011.

There are no members or members entitled to vote on the amendments. The amendments were adopted by the board of directors.
