The undersigned incorporator a natural person 18 years of age or older, in order to form a corporate entity under Florida Statute, Chapter 617, adopts the following articles of incorporation.

ARTICLES I. -Name

The name of this corporation shall be Mother's & Father's Incorporated.

FILED
10 SEP 13 PM 12:17
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLES II. -Proposed/Principal Office

The place in Florida where the principal office of the corporation is proposed to be located at 1320 South Monroe Street, Tallahassee, 32304. The mailing address of the corporation will be 4125 Ballard
Road, Tallahassee, 32305.

ARTICLES III. -Purpose

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The purpose of this organization is:

- To provide direct emergency services to the community, to whom qualify.
- Provide public charitable services, amateur athletic health and fitness education, and job related workshops and referrals, as well as faith-based social and literary scientific seminars.
- To assist the individual with recognizing their self-value and achievements to sustain a motivational drive toward success.
- Enhance this community's poverty, social, economic, and recreational needs.
- Target the needs of qualified individuals and families on fixed income, limited education, and housing needs preconditions.

- Improving individual independence.
- Relief of the poor and the distress and underprivileged.
- Lessen the burdens of government.
- Prevent community deterioration and tension.
- Relief to parents with childcare seeking employment.

Within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that also qualify as Section 501(c)(3) exempt organization. To this end, the corporation shall operate to above said purposes and activities. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.

ARTICLES IV. –Manner of Election

The method in which the directors are to be elected or appointed will be stated in the bylaws.

At all times the following shall operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the corporation:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to any member of the corporation not qualifying as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, nor to any Director or officer of the corporation, nor to any other private persons, excepting solely such reasonable compensation that the corporation shall pay for services actually rendered to the corporation, or allowed by the corporation as a reasonable allowance for authorized expenditures incurred on behalf of the corporation;
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; and
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended.
4. The corporation shall not lend any of its assets to any officer or director of this corporation, [unless such loan program is regularly conducted as part of the activity of the organization and the qualification of the individual to participate in same is determined by a panel comprised solely of non-Board member], or guarantee to any person the payment of a loan by an officer or director of this corporation.

ARTICLES VII. – Membership /Directors

The corporation may (but need not) have voting members and such membership, if any, and classes thereof, shall be as defined in the corporation's bylaws. The management and affairs of the corporation shall be at all times under the direction of a Board of Directors, whose operations in governing the corporation shall be defined by statute and by the corporation's bylaw. No member or Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation.

Members of the initial board of directors shall serve until the first annual meeting, at which their successors (if any) will be duly elected and qualified, or removed as provided in the bylaws.

ARTICLES VIII. – Debt Obligation and Personal Liability

No member, officer, or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the members, officer, or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

ARTICLES IX. –Duration/Dissolution
