SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

June 18, 2011

Secretary of The State of Florida
Tallahassee, Florida

To whom it may concern,

Last year I had the Company Corporation, 2711 Centerville Road, Wilmington, Delaware 19808, set me up "The Fund Raising Corporation".

They became my Registered Agent and processed the necessary papers with your office.

To date, due to serious illness of my wife, I have not been able to proceed with the activation of The Fund Raising Corporation.

I have notified The Company Corporation that I wish to close the corporation and have no further need of their services, because I have moved out of the state of Florida to get my wife the health care she needs.

Please advise, if I owe The State of Florida any further fees for not activating my Corporation. I believe I paid the annual fee that I was billed for. What further Action on my part must I do to close the books on "The Fund Raising Corporation"?

Your help in this matter will be greatly appreciated, as the health of my wife is far more important than any small business I may start.

The information for The Fund Raising Corporation is printed on the invoice received from the Company Corporation, which is attached.

Sincerely,

Rev. Marvin L. Horton
For the inactive The Fund Raising Corp.
