Articles of Incorporation of

Colts Travel Baseball Inc.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: is to provide Young Boys ages 8-13 years with the opportunity to achieve physical fitness through their participation in high level baseball competition. The boys will be taught the benefits of hard work, teamwork, and good sportsmanship. They will be provided with a venue in which they can spend their after school hours and interact with boys within these age groups in a positive supervised manner. The families of the boys are required to be actively involved and will create much needed quality family time together. The boys and their families will travel to venues within Florida and possibly to other states as well and will be taught how to behave when away from home and during high level competition. Travel Baseball will allow them to use after school free time in a positive healthy manner which benefits the residents of the Village of Wellington as well as the boys themselves. Physical Fitness will be a high priority and will produce healthier more productive young men. Periodic instruction by highly trained athletes as well as by their volunteer coaches will provide the boys with skills that can benefit them greatly towards higher education.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
