ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
FOR
FYGM, Inc., A Not-for-Profit Corporation

FILED
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
10 SEP 28 PM 12:28

The undersigned incorporator, a Citizen of the United States of America, for purpose of forming a Florida not-for-profit corporation, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation.

Article I

The name of the not-for-profit corporation:

FYGM, Inc.

Article II

Principal place of business address of the corporation:

1704 West Call Street, B-310
Tallahassee, Florida 32304

Mailing address of the corporation:

1704 West Call Street, B-310
Tallahassee, Florida 32304

Article III

The purpose for which this not-for-profit corporation is organized:

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Specifically, and in keeping with Christian principles, the corporation is devoted to assisting the homeless by providing funding assistance to homeless shelters and homeless outreach programs through the sale of merchandise and fund-raising events.

Article IV

Limitations of this not-for-profit corporation's activities:

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensations for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporations shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article V

Distribution of assets upon dissolution of this corporation:

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article VI

Additional provisions upon this corporation:

1. The corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

2. The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
3. The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
4. The corporation shall not make any investments in a manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
5. The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditure as defined in section 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VII

The manner in which the Directors are elected or appointed:

The initial Directors shall be appointed by the Incorporator upon confirming 1) their commitment to the religious and charitable purposes of the corporation, 2) their high moral character, and 3) their willingness to serve. Subsequent Directors shall be appointed by a majority vote of the sitting Directors based upon the above criteria. The corporation shall have no less than three nor more than five Directors.
