Article III, Purpose

The purposes for which this corporation is organized are:

- a. To operate for charitable and religious purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and
- b. To engage in lawful charitable acts or activities, not for pecuniary profit and not specifically prohibited to corporations under other laws of the State of Florida, for which corporations may be organized under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act in Title XXXVI, Chapter 617, of the Florida Statutes.

Article IX, Additional Provisions

- a. Asset Distribution Upon Dissolution. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable and religious purposes. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and religious purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- b. Influencing Legislation. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
- c. Limitation on Private Inurement. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.
