D. To operate through its officers, Directors, committees, or other agencies.

IV.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than 3 members and not more than 11 members. The initial members of the Board of Directors shall be named in the initial bylaws adopted by the incorporator. Thereafter the election of the Directors shall be as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

V.
POWERS AND LIMITATIONS

To accomplish the foregoing objectives and purposes, and for no other purpose, the Corporation shall have powers granted by (Section 617.0302, Florida Statutes), as amended from time to time, along with the following powers, all subject to the limitations hereafter provided:

A. To solicit, accept, and collect pledges, donations, contributions, and gifts in cash or in property, and to take and to hold, by bequest, devise, gift and purchase or lease, either absolutely or in trust, for its objects and purposes or any of them, any property, real, personal or mixed, without limitation as to the amount, except such limitation, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and to expend the income there from or the principal thereof for any of the Corporation's objectives and purposes, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received; to receive any property, real, personal or mixed, in trust under the terms of any will, deed of trust, or other trust instrument for the foregoing purposes, or any of them (but for no other purposes), and in administering the same to carry out the directions and to exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of principal, as well as income, for one or more of such purposes if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received.

B. To create and control other corporations, limited liability companies, limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, or organizations deemed advisable to best accomplish the purposes of this Corporation.

C. To acquire by purchase, lease, contract, or otherwise any property, real, personal or mixed, including interests in oil, gas and other minerals, stocks, bonds, notes, and other interests or obligations of corporations, partnerships, or other business organizations.

D. To own, hold, sell, convey, lease, and otherwise manage, contract with reference to, or dispose of all or any part of its assets, real or personal, on any terms and conditions as may be lawful, and likewise to invest all proceeds and income of such assets in any type or kind of property, real, personal, or mixed, as appears advisable and as permitted of corporations by law, and if deemed advisable by the Board of Directors, the Corporation may enter into any general, special or limited partnership as a general, special or limited partner or become a member of any limited liability company.

E. To borrow money, execute notes, mortgages, trust indentures, bonds, and to enter into such other contracts as shall be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors and in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

F. To have and maintain such office or offices and related equipment as are necessary to administer the affairs of the Corporation and to do any and all things necessary in the premises in order to effectively receive, administer, manage, operate, disburse, and control any funds and or property of any nature which the Corporation may have.

G. In fulfilling its objectives and purposes, as hereinabove set out, and its powers, the Corporation shall be subject to the following limitations:

(1) At no time, either on dissolution or prior thereto, shall any part of the funds or assets of the Corporation inure to the benefit of any private individual (other than by grants in aid in conformity with the purposes hereinabove enumerated and except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes), nor be used for the purpose of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

(2) The Corporation is not formed for profit, but shall be operated exclusively as a historical society for educational, preservation, and scholarly purposes.

(3) Any income received by the Corporation shall be applied only to the nonprofit purposes and objectives of the Corporation set forth herein and no part thereof during membership or upon termination of membership shall inure to the benefit of any private member or individual.

(4) The Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a Corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

(5) The Corporation shall at no time participate in or intervene in any way, including the publishing or distribution of statements, in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

None of the officers or Directors shall be required to furnish any bond or surety and none of them shall be responsible or liable for the acts of omissions of any other officer or Director or predecessor officer or Director.

The Directors shall have all the powers, except as herein limited, as provided by common law and by the State of Florida and such other states as the Corporation may function in, including the advancement of education as it relates to freedom of the practice of religion and including the power to adopt by-laws to govern the conduct of its business.

VI.
