ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
THE CROSSING MINISTRIES, INC.
A NONPROFIT CORPORATION

FILED
10 OCT 20 PM 2:18
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the corporation is: THE CROSSING MINISTRIES, INC.

ARTICLE II. AUTHORITY

The corporation's principal place of business and mailing address is 2805 Pratt Place, Jacksonville, FL, 32259.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSES

The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law), including leading people into a growing relationship with God and each other through Jesus Christ and the making of distributions to organizations exempt at the time under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

ARTICLE IV. DURATION

The corporation shall have perpetual duration unless otherwise dissolved in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII.

ARTICLE V. RESTRICTIONS

Section 1. No Private Inurement. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers or other private persons; except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. The corporation shall not have capital stock or shareholders.

Section 2. No Substantial Lobbying. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be to influence legislation.

Section 3. No Political Campaigning. The corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE VI. DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number. The Board of Directors shall consist of not fewer than three (3) members, and of not more than a maximum number determined by the By-Laws of the corporation.

Section 2. Powers. The Board of Directors shall govern the corporation and, even though designated as "Directors," shall have all the rights and powers of a board of directors under the laws of the State of Florida and of the United States, as well as such other rights and authority as are herein granted. Such rights and powers shall include, but not be limited to, the power to amend the Articles of Incorporation and the power to adopt and amend the By-Laws and other corporate governing documents by a three-fourths majority vote (unless a different majority vote is required in the By-Laws), in any way not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, the laws of the State of Florida or the laws of the United States; provided, however, that such rights and powers shall include the right to transfer and relinquish all, or part of, these rights and powers to any governing Board or Body that might be established by the Directors in the initial By-Laws adopted by the directors.

Section 3. Term. The term of each member of the Board of Directors shall be as established in the By-Laws.

Section 4. Election. Unless the By-Laws provide differently (in which case such By-Laws shall control), directors shall be elected by the remaining directors by a three-fourths majority vote upon the expiration of a director's term or a vacancy for any reason (including positions created by an increase in the number of directors). If the Board of Directors is unable to select a successor director(s), such successor(s) shall be appointed by the appropriate court of the county in which the principal Florida office (or if none the Florida registered office) of the corporation is then located.

Section 5. Limitation of Liability. No director shall have any personal liability to the corporation for monetary damages for breach of duty of care or other duty as a director, by reason of any act or omission occurring subsequent to the date when this provision becomes effective, except that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for (a) any appropriation, in violation of his duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation; (b) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law; or (c) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

ARTICLE VII. POWERS

Section 1. General. The corporation shall have all the rights and powers customary and proper for tax-exempt nonprofit corporations, including the powers specifically enumerated in the Florida Code.

Section 2. Restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or by a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Sections 170(b)(1)(A) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law).

Section 3. Charitable Directorship Etc. The corporation shall be empowered to hold or administer property for the purposes stated in Article III, including the power to act as Director.

ARTICLE VIII. DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Dissolution. The Board of Directors (unless this power has been transferred by the By-Laws) may cease corporate activities and dissolve and liquidate the corporation, by a unanimous vote.

Section 2. Liquidation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall pay or make provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, and shall thereafter dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes stated in Article III hereof in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable or religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law), as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Section 3. Contingent Provision. If any such assets are not so disposed of, the appropriate court of the county in which the principal Florida office (or if none the Florida registered office) of the corporation is then located shall dispose of such assets exclusively for the purposes stated in Article III herein, and exclusively to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes and at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under such Section 501(c)(3), as said court shall determine.
