Dissolution of Assets Provision

Please note that this entity has applied to the IRS for federal tax exemption as a charitable organization and the articles of incorporation is to include this attachment as a required purpose clause and dissolution of assets provisions. Any and all assets that is present at the time of dissolution of the charitable organization, will be transferred or merged with another tax-exempted organization, and the IRS will be notified about the details of the action.

Termination of an Exempt Organization

Most tax-exempt organizations that end their operations, either through shutting down, transferring their assets or merging with another tax-exempt organization, must inform the IRS about the details of the action.

How You Should Inform the IRS

For the 2009 tax year returns (filed in 2010 or 2011) the filing guidelines are:

- Gross receipts normally less than or equal to $25,000, file the e-Postcard (990-N)
- Gross receipts less than $500,000, and total assets less than $1.25 million, the organization can choose to file Form 990-EZ or 990
- Gross receipts $500,000 or more and total assets greater than or equal to $1.25 million, file Form 990
