Articles of Incorporation of Intensity Volleyball Club, Inc.

The undersigned, who are citizens of the United States and 18 years of age or older, desiring to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, do hereby certify and acknowledge the following:

Article I: Name

The name of the Corporation Not for Profit shall be Intensity Volleyball Club, Inc.

Article II: Principal Office & Mailing Address

The place in this state where the principal office of the Corporation is to be located is 1608 Oviedo Grove Circle Apartment 9, Oviedo, Seminole County, Florida.

Article III: Purpose

The corporation is organized exclusively for educational and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as may be amended. Without limiting the foregoing, the corporation is dedicated to fostering amateur athletic competition through the game of volleyball. The principal purposes of Said Corporation are to (a) govern, promote, and further develop the-game of volleyball; (b) teach and train volleyball players, coaches, referees, and administrators; (c) promote sportsmanship and develop leadership; (d) develop physical fitness and mental alertness; and (e) provide an enjoyable recreational activity.

In furtherance of the purposes as set forth above, the corporation shall: (a) implement and enforce uniform rules and regulations, consistent with the principles and laws of the USA Volleyball ("USAV") and the Amateur Athletic Union ("AAU"), except as modified for youth volleyball and promulgated in the corporation's rules of competition; (b) provide information, teaching and training programs for the membership as required; and (c) assign administrative responsibility and authority to members of the corporation.

To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.

Article IV: Membership & Board of Directors

This Corporation shall have members. The eligibility, rights, and obligations of the members will be determined by the organization's bylaws. The management of the affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined in the Corporation's bylaws. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be elected in accordance with methods and

Article V: Exemption Requirements

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VI: Duration & Dissolution of Assets

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual until dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article VII: Meetings

After incorporation, the appropriate members of the Corporation shall hold an organizational meeting in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended.

The board of directors of the Corporation may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through, the use of any means of communication which allows all directors participating to simultaneously hear one another. A director participating in such a meeting is deemed present at the meeting. In the alternative, the board of directors may take actions through signed e-mail communications provided all board members agree.

Article VIII: Limitation of Personal Liability

Except to the extent otherwise required by applicable law (as it exists on the date of the adoption of this Article or may be amended from time to time), a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for liability of the director (i) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director, or (ii) for any transaction from which the director personally receives a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall adversely affect any right of protection of any director of the corporation occurring after the date of the adoption of this Article and prior to such amendment or repeal. No (member) officer or Director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the (members) officer, or Directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this Corporation.

Article IX: Registered Agent

The name and address of the registered agent of Said Corporation are as follows:

Riccardo R Martines 1608 Oviedo Grove Circle Apt. 9, Oviedo, Florida, 32765

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
