ARTICLE VII
LIMITATIONS ON POWERS OF CORPORATION AND DISSOLUTION PROVISION

The following provisions are hereby adopted for purposes of defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and the Board of Directors:

(i) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Corporation's members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to and make payments and distributions in furtherance of, the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a) of the Code.

(ii) Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying, or making provision for the payment of, all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation (a) to an organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time of such disposal qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Code, or (b) to states, territories or possession of the United States, any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or to the United States or the District of Columbia, but only for charitable purposes. The Board of Directors shall determine how the Corporation's assets will be distributed in accordance with the foregoing sentence. Any of the Corporation's assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court located in Miami Dade County, Florida or such other court sitting in equity in the political subdivision in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes to such organization or organizations, as the foregoing court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(iii) The Corporation shall indemnify the Directors and the Corporation's officers, if any, to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of Florida now or hereafter in force, including the advance of expenses under the procedures provided by such laws; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not limit the authority of the Corporation to indemnify other employees and agents of the Corporation consistent with the laws of the State of Florida and, provided further, that indemnification shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Code.

(iv) To the fullest extent permitted by Florida statutory or decisional law, as amended or interpreted, no director or officer of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for money damages; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation of director and officer liability shall only be to the extent permitted of organizations which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Code. No amendment of these Articles or repeal of any of its provisions shall limit or eliminate the benefits provided to directors and officers under this provision with respect to any act or omission which occurred prior to such amendment or repeal.

(v) During any fiscal year of the Corporation that it is determined to be a private foundation as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code:

(1) The Corporation shall distribute its income for such taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code.

(2) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code.

(3) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code.

(4) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to the tax imposed under Section 4944 of the Code.

H100002631203

(5) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

(vi) The Corporation retains the right to further amend its corporate purposes so that it may embrace any activity which may properly be engaged in by any organization which is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Code, and all contributions to the Corporation are made subject to this provision unless otherwise specifically stated in writing at the time of contribution.

The enumeration and definition of particular powers of the Board of Directors included in this Article VII shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other article of these Articles, or construed as or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit any powers conferred upon the Board of Directors under the laws of the State of Florida now or hereafter in force, except to the extent that the laws of the State of Florida permit activities which are not permitted under federal law for any organization which is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE VIII DURATION OF CORPORATION

The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual, unless earlier dissolved in accordance with the Bylaws.
