Article III

PURPOSE

The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activity not permitted to be carried on any organization exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the code.

Additionally, the general purpose of the corporation is to raise money for autism awareness and to provide financial assistance to families with autistic children.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Article IX

DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: 12-29-10

(date of adoption is required)

Effective date if applicable: 12-29-10

(no more than 90 days after amendment file date)
