Dear Mr. Brumbley:

Thank you for your correspondence of 12/11/97.

My confusion is rampant. And multi-sided.

First, my correspondence is late because your original correspondence was misdirected in the first place. As I tried to explain in my original letter (dated November 26) it apparently went to Lisa Raspanti, who has subsequently married and moved away. The present owner, and occupant did not know what to do with this until recently, and that's when she got me involved.

At any rate, here is another check, this one for $61.25, which I am told is the amount due if our condominium is non-profit, and of course it is non-profit (except for me...and for me it isn't even that. It's a big loser.)

Have I touched all the bases now? If so, my thanks to you for helping me out. Obviously, I hope the matter is closed now.

Again, I am yours truly,

George L. Parker
President
