ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT Elect Ladies Ministry International, Inc.

(A Florida Not for Profit Corporation)

MANNER OF ADOPTION:

The amendment(s) was (were) adopted by the members and the number of votes cast for the amendment was sufficient for approval. These Articles of Amendment were adopted by the board of directors of said organization at a regular meeting with a quorum being present which was held on March 21, 2018. This meeting of the directors met the requirements of both the Articles of Incorporation and the bylaws.

The Articles for the organization should read as follows:

Article VI

Members

The nonprofit corporation does not have a membership.

ARTICLE VIII

PURPOSE

The corporation is a public benefit corporation. The organization is not a religious corporation.

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is: This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. More particularly, to bring about holistic healing to the body, mind and spirit.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall be to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purposes clause hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda of otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public offices.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other purposes not permitted to be carried on (A) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (B) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) or the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section or any future federal tax code.

FILED
18 APR 13 AM 9:10
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government of a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal offices of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes, as said Court shall determine.

To accomplish these purposes, the Board shall have the authority to exercise all the powers conferred upon corporations formed under OHIO state law in order to accomplish its charitable and educational purposes, including but not limited to the power to accept donations of money or property, whether real or personal, or any interest therein, wherever situated; provided that only such powers be exercised as are permitted to be exercised by a nonprofit corporation which qualifies as a corporation described in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended; nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.

ARTICLE IX MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed:

Directors are appointed initially by the incorporator and thereafter the Executive Board of the Board of Directors shall elect all successor directors, including successor executive board members.
