The purpose for which the corporation is organized is: ( By Laws Article 2)

Doctors for Life USA, Inc. (DFL) is organized exclusively for medical, relief, educational, religious, and charitable purposes. This is a State of Florida non-profit corporation which may be verified at the Department of State, Florida, under their non-profit charitable (tax-exempt) corporations. More specifically, the Organization is set up for:

1. Doctors for Life USA stands for a) Sound science in the medical profession, b) the sanctity of life from conception until natural death, and c) the basic Christian Faith ethic;
2. The advancement of the Christian faith, medical and dental assistance and counseling education to mainly the peoples of Sub-Saharan developing countries where we currently work in South Africa, Mozambique, Angola, and Zambia with an expansion into, but not limited to, Congo (DRC), Burundi, Rwanda, and others;
3. Services are delivered through the medium of field medical work by qualified doctors and medical personnel and volunteers specifically where no other such charitable aid is done;
4. The advancement of the Christian religion including faith-based outreach for the relief of the poor, the distressed, or the underprivileged;
5. Defending the lives of humans from the pre-born through natural death and their civil rights as secured by law, both human and Divine;
6. Conduct community and public medical field clinics through the division of Aid to Africa and other such programmes and in areas as determined by the Board of Directors;
7. The support and fostering of charitable and training opportunities regardless of race, ethnic origin, gender, age, religion, ability or disability;
8. The solicitation for donations (monetary and otherwise), the request for grants, and mount national and international fundraising activities to benefit medical, educational and Christian projects, and for the sustainability of the ministry of DFL;
9. The purchase, holding, investing, and selling of real estate, media licenses, publications, Internet outreach, technical and intellectual properties, and all such other privileges, rights, and responsibilities enjoyed by non-stock corporations under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed:
( Article 6 of By Laws)

The business of this Organization shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of not less than three and no more than five members, together with the officers of the Organization. Only officers of the Organization that are also board members may attend meetings of the board of directors.

1. The president by virtue of his position shall be the Chair of the board of directors and conduct all meetings. The Chairman may appoint a substitute selecting first from the office of Vice President(s), then Secretary, the Treasurer, Registered Agent, and lastly, Directors.
2. At least one of the Directors selected shall be a resident of the State of Florida (the Registered Agent or another).
3. New Directors to be chosen for ensuing year(s) shall be chosen at the annual meeting of the Organization or at a specially called meeting. Each will serve for a term of two years and thereafter must be nominated, re-elected, or dismissed from directorship when the term expires.
4. Two-thirds of the members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum and the meetings of the board shall be held regularly.
5. Each director shall have one vote. The board of directors may make such rules and regulations covering its meetings as it may in its discretion determine necessary.
6. It is important to the Organization that the board of directors acts in harmony, unity, and with focus on benefiting the Organization. For these reasons, all business voted on in board of directors meetings shall be only passed with a unanimous decision and with prayer.
