ATTACHMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

In compliance with Chapter 617 F.S., (Not for Profit)

ARTICLE III PURPOSES

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable/philanthropic, educational and scientific purposes (assistance to the poor and families in need due to natural or economic disasters), including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to NON PROFIT organizations as specified under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code.

This corporation shall include ecclesiastical opportunities for the community (to provide ministry and help establish others in the Christian faith through the Holy Scriptures).

This corporation shall operate without regard to race, gender, social or religious affiliation. The duration of this corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The business and property of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of three(3) Directors (Trustees). The number of directors/trustees may be increased or decreased from time to time by the Incorporator, but shall never be less than three (3). The manner in which Directors/Trustees are determined shall be provided by the By Laws.

ARTICLE VIII

Upon the dissolution of this Corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for public purpose.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IX

No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE X

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.

All references to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall include such sections as of the date hereof and the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE XI

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
