ARTICLE FOUR

Nonprofit Corporation and Charitable Purposes

The corporation shall be a nonprofit corporation under applicable provisions of Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act. It shall be organized, and at all times thereafter operated, exclusively for charitable, educational, or recreational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, for the benefit of, to perform the functions of, or to carry activities related to the 350th anniversary of the city of Petit-Goâve in Haiti. In furtherance of such purposes, the corporation shall have full power and authority:

- (A). To Promote communication and education about 350th Anniversary of the City of Petit-Goâve
- (B). To Promote community-based, sustainable development that benefits local residents,
- (C). To Provide an information and resource network,
- (D). To provide continuing education, professional development and training,
- (E). To preserve the community's traditions, architecture, and appearance,
- (F). To make distributions to other related organizations related to the city of Petit-Goâve that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code ;
- (G). To receive and accept property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, or devise, from any person, firm, trust, or corporation, to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with and pursuant to the governing instruments of the corporation, as the same shall be amended from time to time; and
- (H). To perform all other acts necessary or incidental to the above and to do whatever is deemed necessary, useful, advisable, or conducive, directly or indirectly, as determined by the Board of Directors, to carry out any of the purposes of the corporation, as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation, including the exercise of all other power and authority enjoyed by corporations generally by virtue of the provisions of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (within and subject to the limitations of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code).

ARTICLE FIVE

Election of Corporate Directors

The directors of the Corporation shall be elected in accordance with methods and qualifications specified in the bylaws of the Corporation. In no event, shall the number of directors be fewer than three.

ARTICLE SIX

Publicly Supported Tax-Exempt Nonprofit Corporation

The powers of the Corporation shall be provided in the bylaws of the Corporation in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes with the following limitations within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may amended:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above. The corporation shall be organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or recreational purposes and not for profit. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
2. Only an insubstantial amount of the activities of the Corporation shall be in furtherance of a purpose not set forth in Article four.
3. In no event shall the Corporation have the power to participate in, or intervene in, including the publishing or distributing of statements, any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office, all within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may be amended.

All terms and provisions of these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the corporation, and all authority and operations of the corporation, shall be construed, applied and carried out in accordance with such intent.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Board of Directors and Officers

- (a) The Board of Directors shall have general charge of the affairs and any property and assets of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the directors to carry out the purposes and functions of the corporation. The directors shall be elected in accordance with the Bylaws of the corporation and shall have the powers and duties set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and in the Bylaws, to the extent that such powers and duties are not inconsistent with the status of the corporation as a nonprofit corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors is six (6) , and the names and addresses, including street and number and zip code, of the persons who are to serve as the initial Directors until the first annual meeting, or until their successors are elected and qualified are:

ARTICLE EIGHT

Members

The corporation initially shall have no members. However, the Board of Directors of the corporation shall have the power to admit members to the corporation in such manner, subject to such qualifications, and upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges as may be provided from time to time in the Bylaws of the corporation and as are not inconsistent with any provision of these Articles of Incorporation. Members may be divided into one or more classes.

ARTICLE NINE

Dissolution of Corporation

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation in accordance with the provisions if it is then in existence and is tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3), and if not, exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner or to such organization or organizations organized and operated for substantially the same purposes as this corporation or exclusively for educational purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE TEN

Limitation of Director Liability

- (A). A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of duty of care or other duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any appropriation, in violation of his or her duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit
- (B). Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Article shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the corporation with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the effective date of such repeal or modification.
- (C). In the event that any of the provisions of this Article (including any provision within a single sentence) are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, the remaining provisions are severable and shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
