Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, this Florida Not For Profit Corporation adopts the following amendments to its Articles of Incorporation:

Article III is amended to read:

ARTICLE III
Purpose

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to promote the worship and message of Jesus Christ by conducting worship services, Christian education, evangelism and missions.

Additionally, the purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code) (the "Code"), not for pecuniary profit.

Article IV is amended to read:

ARTICLE IV

Method of Election of Directors and Number of Directors

The manner in which directors are elected or appointed shall be stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be specified, from time to time, by the By-Laws, provided, however, that the number of directors shall never be less than three (3).

The Articles of Incorporation are amended to add an additional new Article IX, a new Article X, and a new Article XI:

ARTICLE IX
Bylaws

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X

Restrictions and Interpretation

Section 1. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its shareholders, members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered. All other payments and distributions of the Corporation shall be in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

Section 2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent the Corporation has elected to come under the provisions of the Code allowing certain lobbying expenditures), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (the "Code") or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Code. So long as the Corporation is deemed a private foundation under section 509 (a) of the Code, it shall not, as provided in Section 508 (e) of the Code, fail to require its income for each taxable year to be distributed at such time and in such manner as to not subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Code, retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code, make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to any tax under Section 4944 of the Code, and make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 (d) of the code.

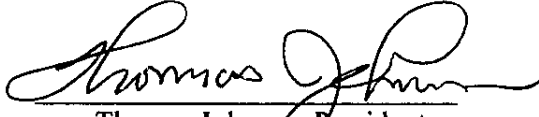

Section 4. It is intended by the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation that the Corporation shall possess the status of an organization exempt from federal income taxation under the provisions of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as now in force or hereafter amended. Accordingly, no part of the affairs of the Corporation shall be administered directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever which might jeopardize the tax exempt status of the Corporation.

ARTICLE XI

Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all assets of the corporation exclusively for one or more of the purposes of the Corporation which may include distribution to an organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for one or more of such purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under selection 501 (c) (3) of the Code, or shall distribute all of the assets of the Corporation to the federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the County in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the purposes of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned subscribing incorporator has hereto set his hand and seal this 18 day of MARCH, 2011. for the purposes of forming this Corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida.
