ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

2011 FEB -2 PM 3:42

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be: VIDA Legal Assistance, Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

Principal Street Address

627 Minorca Ave.
Coral Gables, FL 33134

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The corporations is organized and shall operate for the purposes of providing and ensuring that quality legal representation, and other necessary direct and indirect services, are available to economically disadvantaged immigrant survivors of domestic violence, sexual violence, trafficking in persons, and other violent crimes.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Prohibitions:

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this article. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in , or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. While advocacy of appropriate reforms in statutes, regulations and administrative practices is part of the traditional role of the lawyer and shall be among the services afforded by the Corporation, such activity shall not constitute so large a portion of the activities of the corporation or its employees as would jeopardize the Corporation's tax exempt status under the Internal Revenue Code.

Dissolution:

Upon winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation remaining after payment of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to an organization recognized as exempt under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code to be used exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes. If the Corporation holds any assets in trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such a manner as may be directed by decree of the Circuit Court of the district in which the Corporation's principal office is located, upon petition thereof by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation.

Indemnification:

Any person (and the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person) made or threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against any and all liability and the reasonable expenses, including, attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by him (or by his heirs, executors or administrators) in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with any appearance therein except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding that such Director or Officer is liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Director or Officer (or such heirs, executors, or administrators) may be entitled apart from this Article.
