Dear Ms. Smith:

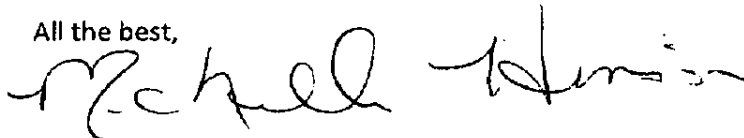

Thank you for yesterday's phone call.

International Public Relations Research Conference, LLC was formed in error. Since we are a nonprofit organization and are in the process of completing paperwork as such, we should have filed as International Public Relations Research Conference, INC.

We are in the process of dissolving International Public Relations Research Conference, LLC.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

All the best,
