The specific purpose for which the corporation is organized is to stop the cycle of secrecy surrounding child molestation, while advocating for victims and their loved ones. This mission will be fulfilled in, but not limited to, the following means:

Papillon Libre will raise awareness of the epidemic of child molestation in the United States through its outreach and campaign efforts. By raising awareness, we are giving voice to victims, thus breaking the secrecy that enables perpetrators and perpetuates victimization.

Papillon Libre will stop the secrecy and stop child molestation through education and training programs. The organization will use failures found in recent research of current reporting systems to support the designing and implementation of increased mandated reporter training. Furthermore, the organization will educate parents and teachers on methods for empowering their children to avoid potential victimization or to speak up should victimization occur.

Papillon Libre will advocate for victims and their loved ones and decrease the negative affects that child molestation has on the overall development of an individual by designing and offering mentorship programs and group counseling.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed:

The number of directors to be elected and appointed after the first Board of Directors, and the manner of their appointment shall be fixed by the bylaws of this corporation as aforesaid, and the determination thereof shall not require any amendment to these Articles of Incorporation, it being the intention of the parties that the bylaws to be adopted rather than these Articles of Incorporation shall, after the first Board of Directors, govern both the number of directors and the manner of their election and appointment to the said Board of Directors.
