ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
ACADEMY PREP CENTER OF SARASOTA, INC.
(A Corporation Not-for-Profit)

The undersigned natural person of legal age, acting as incorporator for the purpose of creating a corporation not-for-profit under the laws of the State of Florida, as provided in Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
NAME

The name of the corporation shall be:

ACADEMY PREP CENTER OF SARASOTA, INC.

ARTICLE II.
ADDRESS

The street address of the corporation is 3410 Henderson Blvd., Ste. 200, Tampa, FL 33609 and the mailing address of the corporation is P.O. Box 530512, St. Petersburg, FL 33747-0512.

ARTICLE III.
DURATION

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE IV.
PURPOSES

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, education, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and its principal purpose shall be the promotion and operation of one or more private schools located in the state of Florida, which shall focus on the education of children who are economically underprivileged, with an emphasis on development of basic skills at the middle school level and the encouragement and support of the students of such schools in connection with subsequent education.

FILED
2011 MAR 18 AM 8:59
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Any school owned or operated by the corporation shall admit students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The corporation and its school shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies; admissions policies, scholarship and loan program, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

ARTICLE V. POWERS

This corporation shall have all powers granted by law to not-for-profit corporations subject to the following limitations and restrictions. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE VI. DISSOLUTION

No member, trustee, officer, or private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to the sole member of the corporation if it is a Florida not-for-profit corporation, that is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or to such other organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of competent jurisdiction, as provided by law, of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII.

MEMBERSHIP

(a) Academy Prep Foundation, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit corporation, that is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall be the sole member of this corporation.

(b) All other provisions for membership qualification, the manner of admission to membership, the classes of membership, and the rights and obligations of the members shall be as determined by the Board of Trustees from time to time, and shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Control of the affairs of the corporation shall initially be vested in the Board of Trustees consisting of not less than three (3) Trustees, who shall be elected on an annual basis, but the term of office of any member of the Board of Trustees may be for a period of more than one (1) year as provided in the Bylaws.
