Att: Att: STEPHANY NAHNEY

I'm Pastor David Jean from Eglise De Dieu Tabernacle De Louange, located in Clermont Florid
(1040 School St Clermont FL 34711)

I'm writing this letter to talk about a few incidents that happened at the church and also the person behind it all. First, on December 31st my ex-wife (Marie Yveline Delerme or Marie Yveline Jean) who was the church's secretary showed up at the church in the middle of the service and started an argument. I called the cops they came and took a report about what happened that night but on January 5th I found out that she used the EIN number to change some of the church's paper and transfer everything under her name and her family members, including the board members. Also, the same day she closed the church's bank account without my permission or my knowledge, she went to the church and changed the locks then put up a "NO TRESSPASSING" sign as if it's her personal property. Her plan is to have full access and control of the church so she can sale it. The church is a community church, she does not have access to sale it without the boards' member's permission, neither do I. she is no longer one of us after we found out that she stole a credit card from one of the church's member, the member did press charges against her and the case is still open.

And here are the case numbers for the report I've made myself regarding the incidents that happened at the church... Officer J. Kevin, case #17C01342 and Officer Wheeler, case# 16C42932.

Best Regards,

Pastor David Jean
