ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
NEW WAY RECOVERY INC

FILED
11 APR -4 AM 11:38
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation is a natural person competent to contract and hereby form a non-profit Corporation under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE 1- NAME

The name of the Corporation is NEW WAY RECOVERY INC., (hereinafter "Corporation').

ARTICLE 2- PURPOSE OF CORPORATION

The purpose for which the Corporation is formed are those set forth in its Articles of Incorporation, as from time to time amended. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations, defined under section 501(c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation may lease, and, by gift, devise, or purchase, own and operate real estate for the Corporate purposes; and the Corporation may also solicit donations and accept money or personal property in aid of its purposed and to maintain the same.

ARTICLE 4-PROHIBITION

4.1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to any member of the corporation not qualifying as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, nor to any Director or officer of the corporation, nor to any other private persons, excepting solely such reasonable compensation that the corporation shall pay for services actually rendered to the corporation, or allowed by the corporation as a reasonable allowance for authorized expenditures incurred on behalf of the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Second hereof.

Members may be reimbursed for any actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties for the Corporation, by resolution of the Board of Directors, as long as a majority of disinterested Board of Directors approves the reimbursement. The Corporation shall not loan money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any Director.

4.2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; and

4.2. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended or (b) by a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

4.3. The corporation shall not lend any of its assets to any officer or director of this corporation [unless such loan program is regularly conducted as part of the activities of the organization and the qualification of the individual to participate in same is determined by a panel comprised solely of non-Board members], or guarantee to any person the payment of a loan by an officer or director of this corporation.

ARTICLE 5- DIRECTORS

The Corporation shall have a voting membership, and may have classes of same (if any), as defined in the corporation's bylaws. The management and affairs of the corporation shall be at all times under the direction of a Board of Directors, whose operations in governing the corporation shall be defined by statute and by the corporation's by-laws. No member or Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation. The Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of the Members of the Corporation.
