ARTICLE VIII – ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Scriptures: The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. It is inerrant and infallible in its original manuscript which is to be taken as verbally inspired. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried.

God: There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfection. To Him we owe the highest love, respect, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

Man: Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by the Creator with freedom of choice. Through the temptation of Satan, man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His Holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Salvation: Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and savior who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, sanctification and glorification.

God's Purpose of Grace: Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is a glorious display of God's sovereign goodness; and is infinitely wise, holy and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

The Church: This Church is an autonomous body, operating under the apostolic processes and the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are Elders and Deacons.

The Lord's Day: The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by preparation for that rest that remains for the people of God.

Stewardship: God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole Word, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions.

Evangelism and Missions: It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every Church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary efforts on the part of all rest thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Education: The need for education in the Kingdom of Christ is to coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these, liberal support of the Church. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to complete a spiritual program for Christ's people. It is the vision of Kingdom Life Tabernacle to have a strong education ministry that reaches and teaches all ages through Walking in the Word (Bible Study), Sunday Afternoon Live (Worship service), Kingdom Institute (Sunday School), King's Kid Church (Children's Church), Real Talk (Teen Church), and even an affiliated Christian School, with a childcare facility.
